The grievance of the petitioners is that they have submitted applications for issuance of licences and paid the requisite fee and respondents have not issued the licences as yet.

The learned Standing Counsel for the respondents has promptly placed before this Court the licences, which are said to have been made ready to be issued to the petitioners. He also undertakes to issue Xerox copies of the same to the learned counsel for the petitioners.

In that view of the matter, the writ petition is closed, leaving it open to the petitioners to collect original licences from the concerned authority. There shall be no order as to costs.
